

causing the infection. Based on these results, a proper treatment can be recommended.

III Conclusion

It is important that everyone is informed of all the crucial issues relating to HIV and AIDS. This particular booklet presented the principal facts on dealing with the Opportunistic Infections associated with HIV/AIDS. TAC hopes that this information will empower you to make the right choices about your own health, and the health of others.