

TAC Recruiting for Editor of Equal Treatment Magazine

By moderator

Created 2009/03/06 - 3:40pm

6 March, 2009 - 15:40 ? moderator

TAC is currently looking for a new editor for our high quality magazine for people living with HIV, Equal Treatment. Here are the job requirement and details on how you can apply.

Minimum Requirements

- Journalism Qualification
- Three year minimum experience
- The ability to understand and translate scientific research pertaining to HIV, TB and relevant public health issues in South Africa
- Comprehensive knowledge of the science of HIV, TB and Gender-Based Violence policy in South Africa
- Ability to organise and coordinate projects
- Committed to the aims of TAC

Skills Required

- Good communication skills
- Excellent writing and editing skills (English)
- Financial management skills
- Good analytical thinking
- Leadership and management of people skills

Key Performance Areas

- Oversee production and editing of Equal Treatment
- Help create public understanding of HIV and TB by supporting districts with information and material
- Budgetary Management
- Supporting district PCR staff in development of writing and reporting skills

Please include three referees and send applications to hr@tac.org.za before Wednesday 11 March 2009. People living with HIV/AIDS are encouraged to apply. The salary is negotiable and will include pension and medical aid benefits.

- Equal Treatment
- Equal Treatment

