TAC is deeply saddened by the murder of Nomzoxolo Dziba on the premises of the Sithembele Matiso Secondary School at New Crossroads in Cape Town on the afternoon of Monday 24 August.

TAC urges the South African Police Service to act speedily and ensure that justice will be served. We also hope that the Western Cape Department of Education will take more serious measures to ensure safe schools by formulating and implementing urgent policies to address this violence in schools. This incident sadly occurs during Women's Month.

TAC conveys its heartfelt condolences to the family, SADTU for the loss of their member and friends of Dziba, and to the learners of Sithembele Matiso Secondary School.
